

Sunday morning outline (4-9-17)

“The Sad Vow of a Syncretist”
Judges 11:29-40

1. When your worship of God is sporadic you tend to use that worship as a means to attempt to manipulate God's actions. (29-33)
2. When your worship is spread out in a lot of different places it winds up settling on yourself! (34-35)
3. When your worship settles on yourself you attempt to get what you want in the present while you forfeit what is better in the future. (36-40)
